

Accessibility Statement for Instructional Design Academy

Introduction

Instructional Design Academy, managed by Scott Wilson, is dedicated to ensuring digital accessibility for everyone, consistent with the European Union Web Accessibility Directive (Directive (EU) 2016/2102). Our website is built on Moodle 4.5, a learning management system continuously updated to improve accessibility and user experience.

Compliance Status

Instructional Design Academy strives to fully comply with the accessibility standards outlined in the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 at Level AA. Moodle 4.5, the platform behind our website, maintains a detailed Voluntary Product Accessibility Template (VPAT) highlighting its accessibility features and compliance status: Moodle VPAT.

Measures Supporting Accessibility

- Regular updates and reviews of Moodle 4.5 to uphold accessibility standards.
- Ongoing feedback mechanisms to continually enhance user experience.
- Regular accessibility training and awareness sessions for content creators.

Limitations and Alternative Solutions

Despite our best efforts, some user-generated content or third-party plugins may occasionally present accessibility challenges. We commit to promptly addressing and resolving any issues that arise.

Feedback and Contact Information

We welcome your feedback regarding the accessibility of Instructional Design Academy. Should you encounter any accessibility barriers or require content in an alternative format, please reach out to:
